"PEGGY"

Triangle Fine Art production. Given by a clever and attractive artist. BILLIE BURKE'S fine comedy opportunity, such as Gardiner Sullivan can provide, and the capable directing of Thos. H. Ince. Billie Burke is a born screen actress.

Story of the Play.

"Peggy" is called to leave America and visit her uncle in Scotland, and the most amusing part, is that of her arrival on Sunday. The good people are all at church, a group of hard, undemonstrative, sanctimonious, just-but-not-merciful Puritans. In the distance is seen a whirl of dust and white streak—Peggy speeding the limit in her raceabout. Chickens, geese and humans are scattered like autumn leaves along the village street, and Peggy hits the center of religious activity like a meteor just as the kirk is letting out, and the rest is told in the big production. Don't fail to see "Peggy" tonight.

MONDAY—"The Cheat." Paramount feature. With Fannie Ward. Famed for her talents as a comedienne. A modern drama offering Miss Ward's splendid opportunities not only for comedy but also for drama. It is by Hector Tunbull. Prominent in support of the star are Jack Dean, Sasuke Hayakawa and James Neill. "Peggy," featuring Billie Burke, is in eight reels. A most wonderful picture. Don't miss this picture. Is better than Thillie's Punctured Romance. Comedy from start to finish. This picture I will guarantee to please. This picture was shown in New York City for two dollars. We will guarantee to please you or your money back.

RHEUMATIC PAIN STOPPED

The drawing of muscles, the soreness, stiffness and agonizing pain of rheumatism quickly yield to Sloan's Liniment. It stimulates circulation to the painful part. Just apply as directed to the sore spots. In a short time the pain gives way to a tingling sensation of comfort and warmth. Here's proof—"I have had wonderful relief since I used your Liniment on my knee. To think one application gave me relief. Sorry I haven't space to tell you the history. Thank you for what your remedy has done for me."—James S. Ferguson, Rhinada, Pa. Sloan's Liniment kills pain. 25c at Druggist.—Adv. d&w

AMERICAN HABIT A BAD ONE

That as a Nation We Are Addicted to Concentrated Pleasure is Undoubtedly True.

Pleasure is limited by the time to enjoy it; in enjoyment, time is more than money.

It is forgetfulness of this fact which makes much of our American spending banal and sterile. With much money to spend and few hours in which to spend it, we become addicted to quick concentrated, extensive pleasure. We cannot imitate the placid, fruitful economy of the Teuton, who takes his beer and music inexpensively and at his leisure. Nor are we like that abstemious German professor who, on his vacation, traveled on the slowest Bummelzug because that way the joyous trip lasted longer. The meteoric flights of our motorists through Europe are in point; the automobile, also, illustrates the nervousness and swiftness of our pleasures. Motoring is broadening and delightful, but we are rushing into this amusement with more than our usual national abandon and hardly even find time to speed. When a pleasure becomes the vogue, conveniences and even necessities are sacrificed to it. We are like those travelers of old who sold their lands to see other men's.—Walter E. Weyl, in Harpers.

Minerals in New Mexico.

In the days when New Mexico was a hinterland an Indian showed some specimens of rock he had found on Baldy Peak to white men, who recognized them as copper ore, and who, guided by the Indian, found the ledge and located a prospect. The men doing development work on this copper prospect in 1866 found placer gold and traced it to its parent ledge. The placers yielded $2,250,000 and the gold mine about $1,150,000, but the rich ore was exhausted in a few years, and for over forty years desultory prospecting for other ore bodies was carried on without notable results. In recent years prospecting based on the geologic relations of the old ore body resulted in the discovery of a new body of rich ore, which has yielded nearly $250,000 in ten months and is still producing.

New Badge.

A new badge of mourning has been adopted at New York. It was first seen on the arm of a colored gentleman, evidently a wealthy janitor or Pullman porter. Since then it has been noticed on the arms of several women. It is not the conventional badge—a black band around the sleeve. This is a great big, black heart, which is sewed to the upper part of the left sleeve. Those who have observed it declare that the black heart is intended to serve two purposes. One, that the wearers mourn her or his loss, and two, that they are lonely and would welcome a helpmeet. Which, at best, is rather a sinister advertisement of the affections.

Snake Does Good Work.

Father McClellan of Woodstock college, who declares that 500 racers will destroy 6,000 mice in a season, refers, of course, not to the "red devil" racer, but the blue, a harmless American snake, which, with his cousin, the garter snake, is one of the chief agents in ridding farms of the lesser mischievous rodents and as such should be protected.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfills its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w
